

Dive Bermuda

June 28 – July 5, 2009

With Y-kiki Divers

Usually referred to as one of the most beautiful islands in the world, Bermuda offers easy access from the U.S., awesome diving with a multitude of wrecks surrounding the island, beautiful reefs and an array of colorful sea life. The atmosphere and ambiance of this island truly defines the description of paradise. Our own little piece of paradise for a week will be the unique 9 Beaches resort located on the southwest corner of the island jutting out into the beautiful blue and turquoise waters of Bermuda.

Plenty of secluded pink sand beaches and swimming areas along with a wide choice of other activities are within steps of your private cabana. Diving around Bermuda is perfect for those that like to maximize their bottom time due to the assortment of shallow wrecks and reefs that offer a dive back into history. Some of the wrecks that are easily accessible date back a 150 years or more. Some are of a more recent sinking and some are intentional wrecks for reef building that just add to the fun of diving Bermuda.

If you've never been to or even thought about Bermuda as a dive destination, you're in for a very pleasant surprise. Really!! This is one nice destination. And if you like to golf this will be another highlight of the trip. 9 golf courses. That's right, 9! And views you won't soon forget. A camera is required equipment when golfing these courses. Dive in the morning, golf in the afternoon, dine ocean side in the evening. What a combination! And we've got your trip to Bermuda all planned out at one the neatest resorts on the island. Don't miss out on this one.
