5 Nights in Yap with Diving

Okay, you've been diving the best spots in the Caribbean, so now where? Well, how about 2 fantastic weeks in the South Pacific with "blow you away" diving you won't soon forget. This will be our 5th trip to Micronesia and it is one of our most popular trips. World class diving, gorgeous islands and friendly people. A true dream trip.

Guam for two nights to relax after the long flights and do two dives, including the very unique SMS Cormoran and Tokai Maru in Apres Harbour. The only place known where you can dive on two wrecks at once, a WWI German raider and a WWII Japanese freighter, on the bottom touching. And what a unique story behind both of them.

Then it's on to Palau for 7 nights on the Big Blue Explorer parked right in the middle of the absolute best diving anywhere. You will have the opportunity to do up to 5 dives a day for 6 days with some of the best visibility you've ever seen and fantastic encounters with sea life of every shape and design. Top that off with WWII wrecks and Jellyfish Lake and you have a logbook full of dive experiences that you will be talking about for a long time.

If that's not enough, we're off to Yap for 5 nights at the beautiful Manta Ray Bay Hotel and face to face diving with the friendly, resident Manta Rays of Yap. This island group offers some of the most diverse range of encounters anywhere. From the huge, graceful Mantas to the colorful nudibranch, cute Pipefish and nervous Razorfish. You can see it all right here. But only if you book your spot quick as this trip always sells out. Call today!
