September 23 to October 4, 2009

2 Nights in Guam with Diving

Guam
Palau
Option

7 Nights Liveaboard in Palau

If you've been dreaming of diving the South Pacific and your vacation schedule just won't let you be gone for 2 full weeks, we have a great option available so you can fulfill that dream. Our optional Guam/Palau package gets you to the heart of the South Pacific and back in 11 days with the return on a Saturday so you have the weekend to relax. That's only 8 work days off and still have a fantastic 10 days of 30+ dives in the South Pacific.

This will be our 5th trip to Micronesia and it is one of our most popular trips. World class diving, gorgeous islands and friendly people. The ultimate dream dive trip. Guam for two nights to relax on the beach after the long flights and do two dives, including the very unique SMS Cormoran and Tokai Maru in Apres Harbour. The only place known where you can dive on two wrecks from 2 different world wars at once, a WWI German raider and a WWII Japanese freighter, on the bottom touching. And what a unique story behind both of them.

Then it's on to Palau for 7 nights on the Big Blue Explorer parked right in the middle of the absolute best diving anywhere. You will have the opportunity to do up to 5 dives a day for 6 days with some of the best visibility you've ever seen and fantastic encounters with sea life of every shape and design. Top that off with WWII wrecks and Jellyfish Lake and you have a logbook full of dive memories that you will be talking about for a long time. You'll depart Palau for an early flight home and arrive back in St. Louis early afternoon on Saturday, Oct. 4th.
